13. Please describe this person's greatest strengths as a Instructional Assistant.

Please keep your comments constructive and professional, abiding by the Principles of Community

- D.G Kim Knows the material well and helps his students understand the material
- Daegyeong Kim was very organized, punctual, and responded to emails quickly. After each discussion, he was quick to send us the slides from that discussion if we missed it or wanted to review it. I found that to be very helpful. Along with that, he was always on time for section and in section, he detailed everything that he wanted to do. Whenever I had to email him, I often got a quick response. I went to his office hours once and doing so really helped me out on the assignment we had to do. He was clear and knowledgeable and definitely helped me in a time where I was very confused in the class.
- He shared slides that were well put together. They contained all the necessary information that was very helpful for the course. His review activities were very effective for the exams as well.
- passionate
- Went over material clearly and precisely.

14. Please describe this person's greatest weaknesses as a Instructional Assistant.

Please keep your comments constructive and professional, abiding by the Principles of Community

- I think he grades way to strictly compared to other TAs it is true that the class is graded on a curve so that everyone is graded fairly but his class had significantly lower scores compared to the rest of the TAs which I think is unfair.
- I wouldn't say Daegyeong really had any weaknesses. If so, they were prominent enough that I noticed.
- The weekly quizzes were too specific for the material we were covering. Have more general questions about readings.

15. Do you have any other comments to add to your evaluation?

Please keep your comments constructive and professional, abiding by the Principles of Community

- Pleasure to have Daegyeong as my TA, a good experience. A tough class but he definitely helped a lot.
